CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S APPEAL TO POWERS

China's Strength For Resistance Will Not Be Exhausted

NATION IS PREPARED

HANKOW, July 6. A STIRRING AND DISPASSIONATE APPEAL to the friendly Powers of the world for an effective check on Japanese aggression against China to ensure the maintenance of Far Eastern and world peace has been issued by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek on the eve of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

THE GENERALISSIMO'S STATEMENT, a lengthy document of more than two thousand words, tells China's friendly Powers and all peace-loving people of the world that it is the deep conviction of every single member of the Chinese nation that justice will finally prevail.

The entire nation, Generalissimo assures the world, will resist Japanese aggression to the very last with the greatest determination. Until Japan withdraws her aggressive army and until Chinese territorial sovereignty is fully restored, no deviation whatever could be made as regards China's predetermined policy of resistance.

The die is cast. The entire people of the Chinese nation, fully apprised of their tremendous duty to their own country and to the world, will not look back, the manifesto solemnly states. China's resisting strength, Generalissimo Chiang informs the world, is boundless and will not be exhausted. This has been proven by the fact that instead of being covered into abject submission, the Chinese people have taken against the inhuman and innumerable atrocities committed by the Japanese troops.

Generalissimo Chiang emphasizes that peace is indivisible and isolation is impossible. As long as Japanese aggression is not checked, Far Eastern and international peace cannot be maintained.

It is the duty of all human beings, the statement points out, to maintain international justice and truth and uphold the sanctity of international treaties, and it would be unnecessary to say how such an important goal may be achieved by the common effort of all peace loving nations and people.

Generalissimo Chiang at the beginning of his statement expressed on behalf of himself and the 450,000,000 Chinese people their thanks to the help and assistance rendered by the friendly Powers since the beginning of the war.

MAIN POLICIES

Declaring that the two main policies of the National Government are first, the restoration of the Chinese nation, and secondly, the upholding, with other nations of the world, of international justice, the manifesto then proceeds to recount the various encroachments

China's Leader

perpetrated by Japanese imperialism against Chinese sovereignty. Culminating a series of aggressive actions, which included the forcible occupation of China's four North-Eastern Provinces, the statement adds, Japan opened her present war this day last year at Lukouchiao and later extended it to Shanghai.

GREAT PROVOCATION

It was under the greatest provocation, and after having exhausted the limit of her patience, beyond which she could not allow herself to go for her very existence and international treaty sanctity, that China opened her mighty war of resistance which has since shattered the Japanese dream of a quick China conquest, the statement says.

The Generalissimo then refers to his repeated statements, which were issued previously in which he pledged himself to the vanquishing of Japanese arms in China and the completion of a new reconstruction for the nation.

MEMORABLE YEAR

This war of resistance has now completed its first memorable year. With the opening of the first shot at Lukouchiao, hostilities have since been extended to Chahar, Suiyuan, Shansi, Shan-ung, Kiangsu, Chekiang, Honan and Anhwei.

Although nominally the Japanese occupied territory covers an area larger than continental Europe, only a few isolated places lying across communication lines were actually under Japanese occupation, which furthermore were only given up by the Chinese after having exacted a costly toll from the invaders.

Reverting to Japanese atrocities, Generalissimo Chiang informs the world that unspeakable savagery and wanton destruction have characterized the behaviour of the Japanese army in China.

STIRRING

First Anniversary Appeal

TODAY marks the first anniversary of the unwarranted attack and ruthless murder of Chinese defenceless civilians, including women and children. We appeal to the Chinese and those who are sympathetic towards China to observe the anniversary by going on a vegetable diet and to donate the money that would otherwise be spent on food towards the fund for the support of the hungry Chinese babies, some 2000 of whom are shortly due to arrive in the Colony.

GENERALISSIMO Chiang Kai-shek has personally sponsored this appeal. Donations may be sent to:—Mrs. Violet Chan, Hon. Sec., H.K. Chinese Women's Soldiers' Relief Association, Mezzanine Floor, Wang Hing Building, No. 10, Queen's Road Central.

BANDITS STAGE SENSATIONAL ROBBERY IN S'HAU

Prominent British Resident Victim Of Well Planned Crime

WIFE ROUGHLY HANDLED

Shanghai, July 6. A prominent British resident, Mr. R. N. Swann, partner in the firm of Messrs. Beck and Swann, was the victim this morning of one of the most sensational robberies for many years.

Thirteen Chinese bandits, all armed with sawed-off military rifles, invaded his residence in the Japanese occupied area on the western outskirts and after trying out the occupants escaped with loot the value of which has not been ascertained at present.

The crime apparently was well planned as the telephone wires were later found cut. Only five out of the thirteen desperadoes actually entered the residence, the others posting themselves at strategic points around the large estate.

Mrs. Swann was rather roughly handled for trying to raise the alarm. She was sat upon, slapped and reprimanded before being tied up alongside her husband. The gangsters remained in the house for more than an hour before departing with the loot which included Mrs. Swann's wedding ring and her husband's War medals.

Besides taking appropriate steps to apprehend the culprits the Japanese military authorities promised to have regular night patrols in the district. (Reuter).

The pensions of non-staff officers will also be increased. The period of service between the rank of Lieutenant and Captain will be shortened to eight years. (Transocean).

BUYING OF COPPER

Out Of Proportion To Industrial Requirements

London, July 6. Last night's action leading to the American producers raising the domestic copper price a further quarter cent to 91 cents a pound was the natural result of rush buying during the latter half of last week when sales totalled 193,000,000 lbs.

London copper dealers interviewed by Reuter said that while admitting that buying had been out of all proportion to the present industrial requirements, they did not share the view expressed in some quarters that such purchases represent purely speculative activity thereby endangering the price stability should Wall Street's buoyancy be dissipated.

The dealers were of the opinion that buying was probably speculative inasmuch as it was the consumer restocking in anticipation of industrial recovery but the supplies were absorbed and were not likely to reappear on the market should the recovery not materialise as the consumers' inventories were at present exceptionally low. As War Enters Its Second Year Thoughtful Japanese People Must Entertain Grave Misgivings Of Its Final Outcome

Generalissimo's Message To People Of Japan

Hankow, July 6. Complementing his message to China's friendly Powers and poor, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has issued a frank and earnest message to the people of Japan, telling them the shame of this war of aggression and urging them to use all their influence to stop it in time.

Generalissimo Chiang in his message declares that China has always entertained friendly feelings for her neighbouring nation across the sea.

It is most regrettable, the Generalissimo says, that the Japanese Army and Navy General Staff, in defiance of international justice and gambling their nation's fortunes and resources, should have precipitated a terrible war unprecedented in Oriental history.

Generalissimo Chiang believes that as the war enters its second year, thoughtful Japanese people must entertain grave misgivings of its final outcome.

Formerly, the Japanese General Staff had boasted of a quick conquest of China in two or three months now they are talking of a long struggle.

It is a great pity, the Generalissimo proceeds, that while the Japanese militarists are devising all ways and means to deceive their people many more of their sons and brothers will have sacrificed their lives in the battlefield, making widows of thousands of wives and thousands of children orphans.

A. P. C. ASKING FOR PROTEST

Swatow, July 6. It is learned that the Asiatic Petroleum Company has petitioned the British Government to lodge a strong protest with the Japanese Government over the dropping of a bomb less than 100 yards from the Company's premises during a Japanese air raid over Swatow last week. (Central News).

Exhausted of the greatest patience, the Chinese people started their war of resistance against Japan a year ago. During the year, the loss of Japanese man-power and financial resources as well as the attrition of Japan's armed strength has far exceeded those in the Russo-Japanese war.

Of even more grave consequence, Generalissimo Chiang tells the Japanese people, was the moral degeneration of the Japanese army which has come to be known as the world's most savage and cruel destructive force. Generalissimo Chiang then proceeds to tell of a number of atrocities committed by Japanese soldiers and asks what would the Japanese people think if the Chinese army had done similar acts against themselves. FOOT ITCH

Athlete's Foot

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. E-28, at least 50% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

BEWARE OF IT SPREADING

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse. Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, salve or ointments, seldom do any good.

HERE'S HOW TO TREAT IT

The germ that causes the disease is known as Tinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ; so you can see why ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It peels off the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

ITCHING STOPS IMMEDIATELY

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

TRAM ACCIDENT CLAIM CASE CONCLUDED

Conductor And Motorman Give Evidence

"I accept the conductor's story in the main, and I hold there is no evidence of negligence whatever as set out in items 1, 2, 4, and 5 of the claim, and there was no contributory negligence. As regards the possibility of there having been negligence on the lines of the Angus case, I propose to take further time for consideration."

In these words the Acting Chief Justice, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, announced his decision at the Supreme Court yesterday at the conclusion of the $10,000 damages claim case in which the Hong Kong Tramways Ltd. were sued by Miss Patricia Pascoe, a 14-year old schoolgirl, through her father.

The action was taken by Miss Pascoe following an accident on board a tramcar near Lee Gardens on November 28 last, when, as the result of being thrown down the stairs, from the first class, she allegedly received injuries which prevented her from attending school for some weeks and which has allegedly caused one of her shoulders to be lower than the other.

Mr. Eldon Potter, K. C., instructed by Mr. O. E. C. Marton, of Deacons, appeared for Hong Kong Tramways Ltd. while Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, instructed by Mr. Peter H. Sin, represented Miss Pascoe.

Before the case was resumed, His Lordship and the two parties visited the scene of the accident.

Chan Kwok-wai, conductor of the tramcar in question, stated that when the vehicle was some distance away from the stopping place opposite Lee Gardens, a boy of about 15 years of age, who was travelling third class, left his seat and attempted to jump off. He told the boy to wait until the car had stopped. The boy stepped back a pace but suddenly rushed forward and grabbed hold of the rail. His feet were on the road and he was dragged along.

On seeing that the boy's life was in danger, he gave the emergency signal by ringing the bell four times. After the boy had been dragged for about three yards, the emergency brake was applied and the car stopped in another three yards.

Mr. Potter: Was there a jerk? I did not feel much of it.

When did the boy let go his hold?—Before the car had stopped.

MISSED HIS HOLD

Did you attempt to seize him when he rushed past you?—Yes, but I missed.

In answer to further questions, witness said that after the car had stopped he immediately got off and ran to the boy who, however, picked himself up and ran away. He did not run after him. The Pascoe family were the only first class passengers and there were no women travelling third class, only two men and the boy.

At the time when he gave the emergency signal, he did not know Mr. and Mrs. Pascoe were coming down the stairs. There was a notice in Chinese on the walls of the third class compartment warning passengers not to leave the car whilst it was in motion. On the stairs was a notice in Chinese asking passengers not to stand in the passage way.

Cross-examined, witness said the boy sat near the third-class entrance. He had been employed as a conductor for three and a half years and during that time he had stopped seven or eight passengers from jumping off. The boy jumped off and landed on his feet but his hands were still holding the rail, and as a result he was dragged along.

LIFE IN DANGER

Mr. Fitzroy: I put it to you that you did not attempt to seize the boy as he did not give you any notion that he was going to jump off?—I did attempt to seize him.

Did you try to make him let go his hands on the rail?—No. It has been stated that you were talking to an amah, is that true?—No.

Where were the three Europeans standing?—Together with the motorman.

What were they doing?—The man was very angry and scolding the motorman. He was shouting and pointing his finger at the motorman.

Is it the usual thing for passengers to come down the stairs before the car has stopped?—Most of the passengers wait till the car has got to the stopping place before they come down the stairs.

Re-examined by Mr. Potter, witness said he did believe the boy's life was in danger.

MOTORMAN'S ACTION

His Lordship: Evidence has been given that when the car stopped the driver went to the rear, is that true?—Yes.

When was that?—As he was being abused by the European.

Witness at first said he could not explain the motorman's action but on being pressed said it was probably the motorman was afraid the European would strike him and therefore went to the rear to get away from him.

Mak Yat-chau said he was driving tramcar No. 60 on November 28 last. Shortly before he got to Lee Gardens he got the emergency signal of four rings on the bell. He applied his emergency brake, and pulled the car up in three yards. He did not know what speed he was driving at but the car was in the fourth notch. He saw a girl fall against the controller and then fall down. He then saw a European coming down the stairs who picked up the girl. His Lordship: What is the good of talking such nonsense?

CONDUCTOR'S EXPLANATION

Witness: He actually came down the stairs and picked her up. This man did not fall nor did he strike against me. He appeared to be very angry and, having picked the girl up, struck me a blow on the chest. I then rang the bell a few times for the conductor, who came through the third class door.

"I told him a person had fallen down from the first class and asked him why he had rung the emergency bell. He said a boy had jumped off the back, held on to the bar, and was being dragged along, and that was why he had pulled the bell. I made a report in writing of this occurrence."

In reply to Mr. Fitzroy, witness said that when a car reached a regular stop, some passengers did go down the first class stairs before the car had actually stopped. He turned round after stopping the car and saw the conductor who was standing just at the sliding door leading from the first to the third class.

In re-examination, witness said that when he said he saw the conductor after stopping the car he meant this: before he looked through the window and saw the conductor he shouted and rang the bell and when he looked round the conductor was on his way to the first class compartment as a result of witness' ringing of the bell.

MR. BELLAMY'S EVIDENCE

Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy, manager of the Hong Kong Tramways Ltd., said he had been managing tram companies for 26 years and he might fairly be described as a "transport man."

If a man were being dragged along in the way described, the conductor's duty would be to give the emergency signal. If the conductor did not so that he (witness) would regard it as gross carelessness which would deserve instant dismissal. The precautions taken by the Hong Kong Tramways were in conformity with the practices of some of the greatest undertakings in Europe. At the time of the accident they were carrying about 1,200,000 passengers a week.

The occasions on which emergency brakes were used were more frequent now than some time ago, but complaints in regard to the application of these brakes were very few. Witness had heard the suggestion that some chain should be put on the rear side entrance of a tramcar. Actually, in the United Kingdom a chain was used as an indication to would-be passengers that the car was full.

As a matter of fact, the only time chains were used was to prevent people getting on to cars; they were never used for the purpose of stopping people getting off.

Witness believed that the Glasgow service was the largest municipal tramway undertaking in the world, and they did not use chains on any other precaution that the Hong Kong Tramways were not using. Witness had never heard of such a thing as that a warning should be given to passengers before the application of emergency brakes; as such a thing would be most impracticable.

ONE OF TWO THINGS

Following cross-examination of Mr. Bellamy when the case resumed

STOLE ELECTRIC CABLE LEAD

Unemployed Sent To Prison

Sentence of six months' hard labour was imposed on Wong Tang-kan, unemployed, when he was convicted by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday on the charge of receiving stolen property, a quantity of electric cable lead, belonging to the Hong Kong Electric Company, on June 22.

Mr. F. Nigel appeared to prosecute on behalf of the H.K. Electric Company, while Detective-Sgt. R. MacVey prosecuted.

In the witness box, Sgt. MacVey said that he received information and went to an unnumbered hut in Pokfulam village where he saw defendant. The quantity of lead was found in the kitchen. There were an iron pan and a chattle for melting the metal.

INSPECTED CABLE

On the following day he went to Peak Pokfulam Road and inspected the cable line which had been cut. He found branches of trees laid on the track to cover the section damaged.

On June 27, he handed one of the ten pieces of lead to Mr. Thompson of the H.K. Electric Co. for examination.

Mr. Thompson gave technical evidence regarding manufacture of the cable and identification of the property.

Pleading not guilty to the charges, defendant stated he picked up the ten pieces of lead while out to gather wood. They were tied inside a sack lying some 30 feet from the Peak Tram Station. No one saw him picking the sack up but many people saw him bringing it home.

SERIOUS VIEW

When defendant was convicted on the receiving charge, Mr. Nigel asked Mr. Butters to take a serious view, stressing the point that there had been many occasions when the Electric Company had suffered heavy losses in the same way. On this occasion, he said, the company had suffered to the extent of nearly $1,000.

He also stressed that by stealing the lead, the cables might cause death to people who might have stepped on them.

Mr. Butters also recommended defendant to be banished from the Colony.

STORED AVIATION SPIRIT

The management of the Hong Kong Motor Car Service Co. was fined $250 by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday for storing 260 gallons of aviation spirit on the premises without a valid licence from the Fire Brigade authority.

Mr. W. M. Smith, station officer of the Central Fire Brigade, appeared as complainant while Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios was present for the defence.

ed in the afternoon, Counsel made their submissions.

Mr. Potter said his story could have been only one of two things. Either it was true or else it was imaginary. He submitted it was true, that on the evidence before the Court there was no reason why His Lordship should disbelieve the conductor.

Assuming that it was true, that such an emergency did arise, and, as a result of the emergency the conductor sounded the emergency signal, that emergency was not caused by any negligence on his part. Recapitulating the defence's story of what the boy did and repeating that the conductor had said he tried to catch the boy, Mr. Potter asked: "Was he guilty of negligence?" He quoted the Angus case and said he was not.

On the question of damages, Mr. Potter said that without reflection on Miss Pascoe he had rarely come across a case of such an exaggerated claim. What possible relation there could be between the sum of $10,000 and the damages suffered by Miss Pascoe he could not say. He further submitted that there was never a true case of a plaintiff who had been injured having recovered completely.

After Mr. Fitzroy had replied, His Lordship said he still did not understand whether it was part of Mr. Fitzroy's case; that the accident was due in the first place to the conductor's negligence in not preventing the boy from leaving the tram.

Mr. Fitzroy: I think I must say it is.

Skin and cut up the fowls into joints, and put the neck, legs and back bones in a stew pan with a little water, an onion, a bunch of savoury herbs, and a blade of mace; let these stew for an hour, and when done strain off the liquor—this is for the gravy. Put a layer of fowl at the bottom of a pie dish, then a layer of ham, then one of hard-boiled eggs, cut in rings; between the layers put a seasoning of pounded mace, nutmeg, pepper and salt. Pour in about half a pint of water, border the edge of the dish with pie crust, put on the cover of pie crust, ornament the top and glaze it by brushing over it the yolk of an

COLD SAUCES

Cold meat, fish, and vegetables can be rendered appetising by being served with a good cold sauce. It should be remembered that all cold sauces should be well seasoned; if they are just right when hot they will be somewhat flavourless when they have cooled. If cold sauces cannot be chilled in a refrigerator they should be made long enough beforehand to get them as cold as possible, and the basin containing the sauce should be placed in a dish of cold water or surrounded with ice and salt.

POTATOES

An easily made sauce for serving with any vegetables is made with potatoes as a basis; the potatoes can be those left over from a previous meal. Rub half a pound of cooked potatoes through a sieve, add a little more salt, some pepper, a small pinch of cayenne, and a good teaspoonful of made mustard. Gradually beat in enough unsweetened condensed milk or thick cream to make a smooth creamy mixture (about half a cupful). Then drop by drop stir in enough lemon juice or tarragon vinegar to flavour sufficiently.

BROWN

This is a good brown sauce which will set sufficiently to coat joints of game or poultry or cold entrees or will make small moulds of minced meat. Good, strong stocks is essential as a basis. Brown a chopped onion and a dessertspoonful of flour in some butter, add the well-flavoured stock, add some herbs, peppercorns, a bayleaf, celery salt, a chopped carrot and turnip, and some parsley. Cover and simmer until the vegetables are quite soft, then strain if not a rich brown, add a little brown or glaze. Then strain in a quarter of an ounce of dissolved gelatine and flavour with sherry or some ketchup. Let it cool and stir occasionally. When used for coating it should be on the point of setting before using. When used for mince, stir in the meat or game while still hot.

egg. Bake for about an hour and a half, and when done pour in at the top the gravy made from the bones.

TO COLOUR SOUPS

A fine amber colour is obtained by adding finely-grated carrot to the clear stock when it is quite free from scum. Red is obtained by using skinned tomatoes from which the seeds and skin have been strained out.

Spinach leaves, pounded in a mortar and the juice expressed and added to soups will give a green colour.

Nothing Equals 'ASPRO' for Dengue & Pneumatism

Selly's Estate, Tatham, North Queensland.
Dear Sirs,
Having used your 'ASPRO' for Dengue Fever and also for Rheumatism, I have found that nothing equals 'ASPRO' for relief from pain.
I was very bad the last week in December, and could not sleep with Rheumatism in my legs. A neighbour called to see me, and she told me that 'ASPRO' Tablets were good for pains. I straightaway sent to the chemist for a box of 'ASPRO', and I can truthfully say that I was surprised at the relief I got after taking the first two 'ASPRO' Tablets—they took away the pains and I could sleep of a night. I took three Tablets a night for four nights, and they relieved me, and now I am as well as ever.
Yours faithfully,

'ASPRO' Works Wonders for Malaria

Gladstone, Queensland.
Gentlemen,
I think it is up to me to let you know how I have benefited by 'ASPRO'. Ever since 1910 I have been a sufferer from MALARIA FEVER, having contracted same in Rhodesia, German East Africa and the Straits Settlements.
I came to Australia from the latter country five years ago, and for the first two and a half years was continually in hospital in Victoria and New South Wales. On arriving in Queensland, a friend advised me to try 'ASPRO'. I did, and it has worked wonders. I still continue to get slight attacks of Malaria, but if I take a box of 'ASPRO' Tablets and hot lemon water, and rest a few hours, I am quite O.K. again. I wouldn't be without 'ASPRO' for anything and always carry a box about with me. I can thoroughly recommend them to anyone suffering from the same malady.
This testimonial is unaltered and you may make any use of it that you think fit.
Yours faithfully,

TRY COOKING A CUCUMBER

Hot And Cold Recipes

Here are some appetising ways of serving them.

CREAM SOUP

If you suffer from indigestion and cannot eat raw cucumber you will enjoy this soup.

To make it, you will require one large cucumber, 2oz. each of butter and flour, one quart of stock, one cupful of milk, seasoning, parsley. Heat the butter, stir in the peeled and chopped cucumber. In it until tender, add the seasoning, stock, and a little chopped parsley. Thicken with a little flour, bring to the boil, and strain. Add the milk and serve hot with croutons of fried bread or toast.

UNUSUAL CHUTNEY

Cucumber and apples are the basis of this unusual chutney. Ingredients: 2½ apples, 1½ onions, 2 cucumbers, 1½ pints vinegar, 1½lb. brown sugar, 1lb. sultanas, 4oz. crystallised ginger, 2 tablespoonsful salt, 1 teaspoonful pepper, and 1 teaspoonful of ground cinnamon.

Peel, slice and chop the apples and onions, dice the cucumbers, then put the chopped apples, onions and cucumber into a pan with the vinegar, sugar, sultanas, ginger, cut into small pieces, salt, pepper and cinnamon. Stir and cook slowly for three hours. Pot and cover immediately. Larger cucumbers are tasty stuffed and baked in the oven, and help to make a seasonable warm weather dish with the help of some left over chicken or ham.

One cucumber, some well flavoured minced meat, and gravy, are required. Peel the cucumber, remove the seeds, cut in half, and fill with minced ham or chicken. Tie the halves together, and braise in a deep dish covered with good gravy.

CUCUMBER MAYONNAISE

A new salad idea. You will need some cucumber, minced ham or tongue, and mayonnaise. Split the peeled cucumber, fill the seed cavity with well-seasoned mince, cut into blocks and serve with mayonnaise.

SAUCE FOR SALMON

Try some of this sauce with cold salmon for supper.

Ingredients: 1 small cucumber, onion juice, vinegar, cream or unsweetened tinned milk. Simmer the cucumber until soft enough to sieve to cool then season, and add two tablespoonsful of vinegar, one tablesp. of onion juice and four tablesp. of thick cream.

CUCUMBER JAM

Cucumber jam brings "something different" to the tea-table.

Ingredients: 4 cucumbers, 3 lemons, 1oz. powdered gelatine, sugar, 2 teaspoonfuls of brandy if to be kept for any length of time. Wipe the cucumbers with a damp cloth, cut into dice and place in a preserving pan with barely enough water to cover. Add the grated lemon rinds and the juice, bring to the boil and boil gently for an hour. Measure, add 1lb. preserving sugar to each 1lb. pulp.

Bring to the boil, and boil rapidly for twenty minutes, stirring all the time. Strain in the dissolved gelatine and boil for five minutes, add the brandy, pour into warm dry pots and seal immediately. Store in a cool, dry place.

Mr. Sandys Gives Evidence Before Select Committee

London, July 6.

Mr. Duncan Sandys gave evidence in private at a sitting yesterday of the Select Committee of the House of Commons which is inquiring into the substance of recent statements made by him and the applicability of the Official Secrets Act to Members of Parliament.

Meanwhile, in the House, the Prime Minister suggested that the Opposition Leader should open conversations through the usual channels to see what arrangements could be made for an early Commons debate on the report of the Committee of Privileges, which found that a breach of privilege was committed when a military court of inquiry ordered Mr. Sandys to appear before it in uniform.

The War Minister, Mr. Leslie Hore-Belisha, when questioned, declined to give information regarding the time and place of the meeting of Army Council which decided to set up a court of inquiry into the suspected leakage of information or to make public the names of those present, at meeting.

MEMBERS HOLDING COMMISSIONS

Mr. Hore-Belisha revealed that 23 Members of the House of Commons held commissions in the Territorial Army and two held commissions in the Army. These Members were subject to military law at all times. In addition, 57 Members of the House held commissions in the regular Army or Territorial Army Reserves. Generally speaking, these Members were subject to military law if they were ordered for military duty to which they were liable. (British Wireless).

Major-General H. W. Newcome, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., retired pay, with effect from November 9, in succession to Major-General A. A. McHardy, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., retired pay, who attains the age limit for the appointment on that date.

HUNTED MEN

The story of suave and polished gangster, who knows in his own heart that he is no bigger than the gun he holds in his hand, provides first-rate film fare at the Alhambra Theatre today, where the new Paramount picture, "Hunted Men," has its showing.

Together again after their recent triumph in "Tip Off Girls," Lloyd Nolan, Mary Carlisle and J. Carroll Nash bring to the screen vivid characterizations, as the hunted racketeer, the girl who falls in love with him, and his unscrupulous lawyer.

Seen in the supporting lead in the new film is Johnny Downs, who has forsaken musical comedy leanings to appear in a straight dramatic part. He appears as Miss Carlisle's boy friend, and turns in a fine performance. Appearing in featured parts are Anthony Quinn, Larry Crabbe, and Dorothy Peterson.

ARTIFICIAL NUDE MOONLIGHT PICNICS FOR THE HOME THIS SUMMER

Romantic couples can now produce artificial moonlight at home simply by flicking an electric switch.

The synthetic moonlight—invented by Mr. Aubrey E. Noble, a research engineer in Buffalo, New York—is produced by gas-tube lighting. He claims that his invention gives silvery-blue rays just like the real thing.

It is obtained, he explained in an interview here, by cutting out all colours except blue. He added: "We can also produce synthetic daylight in the home with a combination of coloured gas-lighting."

Another form of lighting evolved by Mr. Noble combines the use of a mercury lamp, giving invisible rays, with fluorescent crystal paint. The walls are painted with fluorescent crystals and rays from the invisible lamp give a brilliant coloured effect, he said.

WAR DISTINCTIONS OF FORMER STUDENTS OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

Mr. D.J. Sloss Pays Tribute At Annual Prize Day

MATRICULATION SUCCESSES

The annual Prize Day of St. Stephen's College, Stanley, was held yesterday afternoon when Mr. D. J. Sloss, C.B.E., M.A., Vice-Chancellor of the University of Hong Kong, distributed the prizes. It was the first visit to the College by Mr. and Mrs. Sloss and a hearty welcome was accorded them by the Rev. E. W. L. Martin, M.A., Warden, who presided at the function.

In the course of his speech, the Vice-Chancellor referred to the military distinctions won by old boys of the College, and said that this must be a source of immeasurable gratification to the Council, the Staff and the boys now at School. "It is a very notable record and you have the right to think that this School has made its contribution to China," remarked Mr. Sloss.

Among those present were the Director of Education (Mr. G. R. Sayer), Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, C.B.E., Ching-yue and Ip Hung-ho obtained honours. All these four students studied in St. Stephen's College from A.B.C. to Matriculation.

THE STAFF

This is the one occasion each year when the opportunity occurs of expressing appreciation of the services of the Staff, whose work is beyond praise. When one considers the variety of the services voluntarily performed by the Staff in addition to their teaching and administrative work day by day, one realizes how much the success of the school is due to their service.

WARDEN'S REPORT

Following prayer offered by Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Lee Kau-yan, the Warden of the College, presented his report, which was as follows:—

As 1914 was the year of the War in Europe, so 1937-8 will ever be remembered as the year of the outbreak of the War in China. Our students have contributed to weekly collections to War Charities out of their pocket-money. They have also responded generously to various appeals such as the Y.M.C.A. fund for soldiers' relief, the medical relief funds, the soldiers' rain-coat fund, the sale of War Bonds, and the fund for student refugees in Central China.

At the same time local charities have not been forgotten, in particular the support of a doctor in Tsang Shing District has been maintained for the fifth year by means of weekly contributions from pocket-money.

Dr. Wan Yik-shing, an Old Boy, now holds the rank of General. His services on the various war fronts are well-known. To Yik-shing also holds the rank of General. Li Yu-wan is a third Old Boy who is a General. Tsao Shiu-yan is a Colonel. Choy Cheung-chi, having graduated from the Central Military Academy, is one of several Old Boys whom we know to be at the front.

Kwok Yu-chih has been private secretary to General Yang of the 20th Army. Dr. M. K. Yue is in charge of all medical First-Aid for Fukien Province. Ho Yuen-king is doing national war work with the troops with his headquarters in Changsha. These are a few of the considerable number of Old Boys in the War. Quite a number are in training for the Air Force.

Twelve of our Old Boys received Degrees this year at the Hong Kong University.

We congratulate one of our founders, Hon. Dr. S. W. Ts'o, C.B.E., LL.D., on representing the Colony at the Coronation. We also congratulate one of our Old Boys, Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, M.A., on receiving the high honour of C.B.E.

MATRICULATION RESULTS

St. Stephen's College broke several records in the Hong Kong Matriculation and School Certificate Examination, when five of our students obtained honours, eighteen distinctions, were gain, and one student obtained first place in the examination and was awarded a Government Educational Scholarship.

Mention should be made of the Ip Family. In 1933 Ip Hung-shu gained honours in the Matricula-

FOUR NEW BILLS BEFORE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Four new Bills will come up for first reading at the meeting of the Legislative Council at 2.30 p.m. today.

The first, an Ordinance to amend the Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1890, is to remove doubts by inserting the words "factory, premises," before the word "place" in section 2 (1) (e) (f) of the principal Ordinance.

An Ordinance to amend the Bankruptcy Ordinance, 1931, repeals sub-section (2) substitutes of the following sub-section therefor:—

(2) No person shall be appointed Official Receiver or Deputy Official Receiver unless at the date of such appointment he is a barrister, advocate, solicitor or proctor or a member of the Colonial Legal Service or has successfully passed the examinations required before admission of a barrister, advocate, solicitor, law agent or proctor.

WIDER CHOICE

Under old sub-section (2) only barristers or solicitors are eligible for appointment as Official Receiver. By this amendment the appointment may be held by a person who is or who has successfully passed the qualifying examinations for admission as a barrister, advocate, solicitor or proctor, or by a member of the Colonial Legal Service.

The operation of this Ordinance is expressed to take effect from May 25, 1938.

An Ordinance to amend the Dentistry Ordinance, 1914, substitutes a new paragraph (b) and adds a new paragraph (bb) to section 5 (3) of the principal Ordinance, making better provision for the removal therefrom of the names of persons who have ceased to reside in the Colony and do not intend to return, or who cannot be traced, and thus enabling the Register to be kept up to date.

CONTROL OF ALIENS

In connection with the Bill introduced an Ordinance to amend the Registration of Persons Ordinance, 1934, it is explained that owing to the provisions of section 20 of the Magistrates Ordinance, 1932, a person who commits an offence under the Registration of Persons Ordinance, No. 3 of 1934, cannot be proceeded against after the expiry of six months from the date on which the offence was committed, unless information has been laid or complaint made before that time.

Cases have occurred in which aliens who have failed to report their intended departure from the Colony, in contravention of section 2 (2) of the Ordinance, at Police Headquarters, have, on returning to the Colony after the six-months' period, been immune from prosecution, the offence not having come to the notice of the authorities within the prescribed time.

3. Clause 2 of this Bill, by inserting a new section 7A in the principal Ordinance substituting a two-years' for the six-months' limitation, is intended to cure this defect.

CHINESE RECAPTURE TUNGA

Chengchow, July 6.

Chinese guerrillas defeated the Japanese at Tunga, southwest of Feicheng in west Shantung in a fierce battle, and recaptured the town on July 3. The Japanese, numbering between 200 and 300 retreated towards Tsinan.

In south Shantung, Chinese guerrillas, using the tall Kaoliang crops as cover are actively harassing the Japanese. Lingyi city was once broken in by the guerrillas who inflicted heavy losses on the Japanese garrison and withdrew only upon the arrival of heavy Japanese reinforcements. Sporadic fighting is reported to be still going on around Lingyi—(Central News).

ONE YEAR OF FIGHTING

ONE YEAR AGO today the first shot was fired at Lukuchiao—a "mere incident" in itself but the last 365 days have shown us to what extent that "incident" has developed. The Japanese, it is a well-known fact, had long awaited an excuse of this nature to "start something" but it was not generally expected that it would be anything on so large a scale even to the Japanese.

The early days of the war brought with them victory after victory for the Japanese who, equipped with superior weapons of war, a big navy and a large number of planes, were able to break through the Chinese defences in more than one sector. The war spread down to Shanghai and then up to Nanking and when the capital was taken the joy of the Japanese, at home and abroad, knew no bounds.

Victory marches were staged in Shanghai, Tokyo and all parts of the Japanese Empire but these celebrations were short-lived for very soon the country were forced to realise that the Chinese were not to be conquered after all—even though the capital had fallen.

GENERALISSIMO Chiang Kai-shek, the one man for the occasion, came in for no little criticism when he refused to embark on a large-scale war immediately after Lukuchiao. The Generalissimo knew what he was doing: his critics did not. HE WAS DOING the first anniversary of the war, the whole world, as one, acknowledges the keen sense of leadership and alertness that prompted China's Generalissimo to act as he did. He realised at that stage, better than anybody else, that China was not ready for it so rather than plunge his country into disaster, he "swallowed" all the criticisms levelled at him—and it takes a strong man to be able to eat humble pie even though he knows it would only be for but a short period.

Japan has shown the world in general two things: that she is by no means a first-class power and that she is a country without scruples. The ruthless attacks by her fighting forces, not excluding her air arm, on open towns and cities, have won for her the contempt of the world, while the many statements made by the numerous spokesmen have long since been treated as so many lies by the whole of the civilised world.

AT THE moment the Japanese are concentrating their attention on Hankow. The much-talked-about invasion of South China has not materialised and in our opinion it will never be launched. Japan has not sufficient finance for such a campaign to begin with, and even if the country's coffers permitted such a step, there is MAN-POWER the very serious lack of EXHAUSTED man-power, for the man-power of Japan has already been drained considerably.

It is interesting to note that General von Paulkhausen, former German military adviser to China, is of the opinion that the final victory must be China's. He made this statement in an interview just before his departure from Hankow—a step that was not of his own choosing.

OF THE Generalissimo the German military expert has none but the highest praise. Like so many people General von Paulkhausen is convinced that the Generalissimo Chiang is the one man who can bring China to victory. We feel it is hardly necessary for us to echo his hope that the whole country would give their leader unstinted support. They have already done so, and in an indirect way the Japanese are also helping to weld China

Italy's Mountain People Declining

A decline in remittances from Italian emigrants in America is leading to the gradual depopulation of the Alpine valleys, the recruiting ground of Italy's famous Alpine soldiers.

In one zone of the Alps, which comprises the winter sports resort of Cortina d'Ampezzo, an official inquiry has revealed that the mountain population declined from 32,062 in 1921 to 26,817 in 1931.

The decrease would have been considerably greater had it not been for the fact that the population of Cortina itself, which lives only on the tourist trade has much increased.

The birthrate in the mountains is falling, and the younger people are emigrating. Much of the land is going out of cultivation or becoming rough grazing, and the livestock is declining. More and more peasant cottages are standing empty.

FLANDERS POPPIESCounterpart In China War

The poppies of Flanders have found their counterpart in the wild roses which grow near the Chinese front-line trenches at Hanchwang, on the Grand Canal, writes a well-known Chinese war correspondent.

As he took his leave of the front, the correspondent says, a Chinese sentry plucked two wild roses from the bank of the canal, presented them to him as the "red roses of the battlefield, and the life blood of the nation."

Marriage Law Revisions

Changes of great importance in the marriage laws of Singapore are foreshadowed in provisional draft bills published in the Government Gazette recently. The bills meet the wishes of modern Chinese and non-Christians who today will not tolerate polygamous marriages.

If passed, the bills will replace the Monogamous Marriage Bill published last September and will enable a Christian to be married either under the new Christian marriage ordinance or under the civil marriage ordinance.

The civil marriage ordinance will also permit non-Christians to contract a valid monogamous marriage. The bills make a distinction between marriages of Christians conducted before the registrar and those solemnised by ministers of religion.

CASHIER'S LAPSEMisappropriated Municipal Money

Wee Ban Swee, formerly a cashier employed by the Singapore Municipality, was recently sentenced to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment by Mr. H. A. Forster, District Judge, Criminal District Court, on a charge of criminal breach of trust as a servant in respect of $668.

The Police stated that the accused's duty was to collect money for hawkers' licences at the Hawkers' Depot, in Havelock Road. On June 15, he collected a sum of $668 and when the collector arrived for the money, the accused admitted having misappropriated the amount.

Mr. M. Y. Pillai, who appeared for the accused, said that he had, however, paid back the amount taken.

RAINFALL IN JUNE

The monthly rainfall report for June, based on readings taken at the Botanic Gardens, is as follows: 9.538, 13 inch.; 10.638, 21; 11.638, 06; 12.638, 22; 13.638, 01; 14.638, 06; 15.638, 13; 16.638, 01; 17.638, 32; 18.638, 07; 20.638, 59; 21.638, 03; 22.638, 04. Total: 1.93 inches.

even more firmly together, for every bomb dropped and every shot fired only serves to stiffen the determination to rid the country of a menace that has hung over it from time immemorial—Japanese interference.

ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE PRIZE DAY

ship with teachers and students, not to mention the gain in independence of character and the experience of esprit de corps.

CONCLUSION

We thank God for this successful year, and we pray that St. Stephen's College may increasingly be of service to China both in this time of crisis and in the years to come.

MR. SLOSS' SPEECH

Mr. Sloss then distributed the prizes, after which he said:—

The most interesting paragraph of the Warden's report is his reference to the military distinctions won by old boys of the school. This must be a source of immeasurable gratification to the Council, the Staff and the boys now at School. It is a very notable record and you have the right to think that this School has made its contribution to China.

China in these last months has attained a moral stature among the nations which cannot be paralleled in her recent history. In fact it is difficult to find a parallel in human records.

UNIFIED FRONT

The discipline of adversity faced with courage and endurance, the willing submission of a whole people to a great leader, the conscious repression of regional and political differences for the creation of a unified front against aggression, the patient endurance of the masses of the people, the courage of her ill-provided troops—these are the solid grounds on which one bases one's belief that the subjugation of China is an idle dream completely incapable of fulfilment.

And while we remember the distinction of some of the old boys of this school, I am certain that we should not forget the dumb heroism of the hundreds of thousands of Chinese peasants and the poor who constitute the bulk of the armies in the field on whom the intensest sufferings from wounds, sickness and privation inevitably fall.

MUCH ACHIEVED

Much was achieved in China before the war, towards a settled state of civil Government; but with such material as the masses of the Chinese people have shown themselves to be, there can be almost no limits to our faith in what is to come, when peace is restored.

St. Stephen's has contributed a share to the successful prosecution of the war and is likely to do still more. When peace comes and the great work of reconstruction is taken in hand, St. Stephen's can play its part. It is not too much to hope that in those days St. Stephen's will keep alive the memory of the Chinese common soldier who is, I think, the real hero of this war.

THANKS

The Warden then thanked Mr. and Mrs. Sloss, and all those who attended at the same time congratulating the 1937 Matriculation Class on their success in their examinations.

Mr. Sloss was presented with a framed view of the school's site at Stanley and Mrs. Sloss received a Chinese porcelain vase as a souvenir of the occasion.

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A. W. HYER—

Time went prancing by this week-end while we were fighting those "Little Bugs" which try to get you down, way under the ground. But we are not pushing up the daisies yet and we did check in on some of the travelling public.

Pan-American Airways

SUNDAY, 3.30 P.M. that temperamental flying boat of Pan-American Airways finally arrived.

Miss Mary Nedley, who pushes a pencil and pounds a typewriter for Mr. P. Delany at P.A.A., was back from a Manila holiday of two weeks. Though we were not there to greet her, we bet she lost ten pounds as it was a vacation!

We are glad to see you back, hello!—And we know all those Pretty Clippers will be stopping by on time now.

Monday—Clipper's Departure

HOMEWARD BOUND, 8.15 a.m. went Pan-American's Clipper carrying a very interesting group of customers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schroeter, District Traffic Manager of P.A.A. in San Francisco, who arrived on the M.V. Anna Maersk from Manila two weeks ago, have had a delightful visit in the Colony. This was their first trip to the Far East, and flying the Pacific route was the highlight.

We hope you will call again someday and happy landings at Alameda for the two of you.

Mr. C. R. Miller and Mr. C. F. Nagel were Alameda bound, too. These two gentlemen have been grinding a camera in the Colony for several weeks.

Shortly they will produce through a Hollywood Movie Producing Company, a technicolour film of Hong Kong and its surrounding land and water in conjunction with pictures of their trip via Pan-American Airways.

They have put Hong Kong on the Travel Map in fine style and we say thanks, for undoubtedly it will prove a good job.

Hope you stop by again in the near future.

Off for a holiday of nine months went Mr. Erik B. Nelson, Assistant Superintendent at Kai Tak. And he went flying, too—Imagine!

This attractive gent, whom we all will miss out there at the airport embarked on the Clipper, Monday a.m. without a hat. But the secret is, that from Honolulu, where he will make a stop over and short visit, it will be "Hold on to your hat Erik Nelson, there you go again."

Alameda will be his second stop, then on to Salt Lake City to assist the racing Johnnie Cobb. (Mr. Nelson, he knows about motor racing, too.)

Then journeying via motor car, across the U.S.A., Mr. Nelson arrives in New York, catching the Queen Mary sailing September 21, for home, England.

Winding up his vacation with a visit to family, friends and foe in England. This fond gentleman in all probability will return to his desk at Kai Tak, the end of March, via plane, registered to one, Erik B. Nelson.

Happy Landings and have lots of fun.

Empress of Russia

BACK FROM A VERY HOT visit to Manila was the Empress of Russia at 8 a.m. Wednesday.

Mr. J. MacLennan and Master I. MacLennan will be visitors in the Colony for a short time.

We did not have the opportunity of a chat with these two passengers, but we hope that you will find your call agreeable and that Mr. MacLennan, an executive in Chartered Bank of India in Manila, will be joining you here before your departure.

Two other charming passengers on the Empress of Russia were Mr. V. Madrigal of Greenhill Co. and Miss M. Madrigal, who will spend two weeks visiting the Colony.

Miss Madrigal was delightful in one of the new drind costumes and wearing a vivid coloured turban over her black hair.

Though their call is partly business, we hope they enjoy themselves thoroughly.

S.S. Ranpura

IN FROM THE SOUTH, 7.30 a.m. came the s.s. Ranpura, with a small passenger list and heavy cargo.

Miss K. J. Archer of the University of Hong Kong, was returning from a visit with relatives in Singapore.

We hope you had a real vacation and that you will continue to enjoy your holidays before going back to your teaching of the oceans rivers, and lands of this world.

Two other passengers on P. and O.'s steamer were Mr. J. A. Deasy and Master Deasy.

Unfortunately these two nice people will only spend a few days with us as they are transhipping to the Empress of Russia and sailing to Shanghai.

100,000 POLYGAMOUS FAMILIES

There are still over 100,000 homes in Turkey in which polygamy still prevails and is tolerated, so statistics published in Ankara reveal.

The reason is that the "multiple weddings" were contracted before the promulgation of the new Kemalist Civil Code, in which polygamy is banned.

The statistics show that there are 3,305,987 wives in Turkey, but only 3,189,387 husbands. The excess of wives is accounted for by polygamous households.

Nearly all Turks marry and most marry young. No less than 14.7 per cent. of youths and girls between the ages of 15 and 19 are married, while between 20 and 24 the percentage of married people rises to 50.7, to 47 between 25 and 29, and to 97.5 between the ages of 35 and 59.

Divorces are not popular. Only 35,735 women and 13,173 men have had their marriages dissolved.

There are 1,049,837 widows compared with only 110,414 widowers. This is put down to the numerous wars in which the country has been involved since the beginning of the century.

No less than 6,241 centenarians are alive in Turkey and of these 59 per cent. are women.

One in every fifty inhabitants is a cripple.

KUOMINTANG EXHORTS CHINESE NATION

URGES SUPPORT FOR WAR OF RESISTANCE

China Laying Foundation For Peace Of The World

Hankow, July 6. Nation-wide support for continuation of the war of resistance against Japan and the programme of national reconstruction is solicited in a lengthy manifesto issued by the Kuomintang on the eve of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

The manifesto declares that since the Lukouchiao Incident on July 7 last year, large numbers of Chinese have sacrificed their lives or have been disabled in the struggle for national existence. It befalls those surviving to win the final victory and complete the task of national reconstruction.

The Kuomintang, the manifesto says, has long been aware of the supreme difficulties involved in a war of resistance and has not overlooked the necessity of peace in national reconstruction.

For this very reason it has, since the Mukden Incident in 1931, pursued the policy that "China will not forsake peace until there is no hope for peace and will not lightly talk of sacrifice until there is no alternative but sacrifice."

PEACE HOPES SHATTERED

It was compelled to lead the nation in a war of resistance when it was perfectly obvious that all hopes for peace, had been shattered and even the very existence of the nation was at stake, with the war

GENERALISSIMO ISSUES APPEAL TO THE POWERS

SUBJECTED TO HORROR

Properties and capital outlays in Japanese occupied areas, amounting to untold billions of dollars, have been destroyed and ruined; countless numbers of men, women, children and aged have been killed, kidnapped, raped, tortured and subjected to all kinds of horror.

At the same time, the Japanese air force have conducted numerous savage attacks on defenceless cities, towns and villages in the interior, choosing as their targets cultural, charitable and educational institutions and civilian residential centres.

In the wake of their wholesale destruction, the message says, many foreign enterprises, which were the results of years of labour and effort, have been sacrificed and reduced to ashes.

CANTON RAIDS

Singing out the Japanese mass air raids on Canton the Generalissimo in his message declares that several thousands of civilians have been blasted to death in over two weeks of endless terror.

These atrocities, unprecedented in the annals of armed combat, must not be allowed to go unpunished, or international justice and truth would cease to exist and a permanent blot would be left in the escutcheon of mankind, the message says.

During the past year, China has shown to the world her armed might in battling to a standstill at many places a better armed and swiftness aggressor. This, according to Generalissimo Chiang, was due first to the nation-wide determination to endure suffering and resist the enemy, and secondly to the warm and generous sympathy and help extended her by friendly Powers and peoples.

CHINA PREPARED

Japan has now found it impossible to stop this costly war she had so light-heartedly started. She will further intensify her operations. But China is prepared.

While the Chinese nation is ready to suffer the worst sacrifice and will continue to give unyielding resistance, it is the Government's sincere and earnest hope that effective measures will immediately be adopted by the friendly Powers in calling to a halt this inhuman and illegal war of aggression waged by Japanese militarists, Generalissimo Chiang urges.

The Generalissimo refers specifically to the League resolution adopted last year, calling for individual, prompt, and effective support to China.

In conclusion, the Generalissimo pledges himself to lead the entire Chinese people towards the final goal of this war of resistance.—(Central News).

Suez Canal Traffic Hitch

Cairo, July 6. A serious dislocation of traffic through the Suez Canal has been caused by strikers.

JAPANESE EMERGENCY CURRENCY

Tokyo, July 6. On the basis of an Imperial decree, the Japanese Government announced yesterday that emergency currency in coins and notes will be issued in July and will be valid until one year following the termination of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.—(Transocean).

Chiang's Frank Message To The Japanese People

The Chinese Air Force, the Generalissimo reminds them, have also visited their cities, but instead of merciless bombs, the Chinese fliers have sent them the sympathy of the Chinese people. The Chinese Air Force, he declares, would never stoop so low as to act in any way in contravention of international law and in violence of human ethics.

Referring to the innumerable cases where Chinese women were violated by armed Japanese forces, the Generalissimo says they shall always remain an indelible blot on the name of the Japanese army which was known for its bushidō gallantry.

Large numbers of Japanese soldiers, he informs them, were killed by defenceless Chinese women who had risen against their torturers.

While the Japanese people cannot be held responsible for the grave wrong and fearful atrocities done to China and the Chinese people, the Generalissimo warns the future of Japan herself would be in terrible shape if they do not rise in time to stop the rampage of the militarists.

REAL MEANING

Many questions they should ask the militarists. What is the real meaning of this war against China? What is its object? What gains have been made since the start of the war, and what losses have been caused?

As to the final outcome of the war, will Japan be able to conquer China or pacify East Asia? Can Japan succeed in extending a hegemony over the Pacific or in driving the White Race away from the Asiatic mainland?

If the Japanese people ask themselves the question: Who have been suffering most and sacrificing the greatest? they would come to realise that China is waging her war of resistance not only for herself, but actually for the Japanese people themselves, the Generalissimo points out.

Generalissimo Chiang assures the Japanese people that Chinese resistance will continue so long as Japan does not stop her aggressive war, and warns them that if the war drags on any longer, China and Japan would become deadly enemies for the next hundreds of years, to the disaster of many generations of their descendants.

The Generalissimo concludes his message by hoping that the Japanese people will arise in time to oppose the militarists and ensure an early restoration of friendship between the two countries.—(Central News).

The deceased, who suffered from rheumatism, had not been in good health for the past five months and for three months of that period was confined in hospital. For the past month and a half, the late Mr. Saenger remained in his home and was unable to go to office.

Of a retiring nature, the late Mr. Saenger enjoyed a wide circle of friends and news of his sudden passing will come as a great shock. The funeral will probably take place this afternoon.

MEMEL GERMANS SENTENCED

Memel, July 6. The military commander has sentenced seven Memel Germans

CARGO NOBODY WANTED TO UNLOAD

Gasmasks were worn by men engaged in jettisoning a cargo of frozen meat which had gone bad on board the Fresno Star at Montevideo.

The meat boat struck on rocks in the Straits of Magellan. She was loaded with 600 tons of frozen meat for England from Chile and was on her way to Buenos Aires to complete her cargo.

The holds containing the meat were badly damaged by the rocks and were flooded with sea-water, under the influence of which the meat rapidly putrefied as the water, invading the other parts of the ship, prevented the working of the freezing machinery.

After a considerable delay the Fresno Star was refloated and the damage sufficiently repaired to enable her to continue her journey north.

By this time the meat in its bath of sea water was in an advanced state of putrefaction and exhaling such fearful odours that the crew refused to jettison, so the freezing machinery was turned on, converting putrid meat and salt water into a compact mass weighing about 1,000 tons, and still smelling despite its frozen condition.

In this state the ship arrived off Montevideo, but the authorities refused to allow her to enter the port, and ordered her to jettison her cargo at a spot indicated about 80 miles from Montevideo.

MANY REFUSED

After many had refused, the local branch of a British shipping company undertook the task of jettison. Thirty stevedores were put on board and the ship taken out to the spot indicated by the Port authorities.

The stench was so awful that the men had to wear gas masks, which had been specially secured from Buenos Aires.

Conditions were rendered more appalling by the intense cold under which the men had to work, and by the fact that the putrid meat did not sink but floated round the ship, adding to the fearful odours which came from the holds, with increasing violence as the men's pickaxes got deeper and deeper into the mass of meat and ice.

WEEK'S WORK

Eventually, after working in shifts night and day for a whole week, the task was completed, and the ship returned to Montevideo leaving the jettisoned meat to float out to sea.

As each carcass was thrown overboard, the fish, which in those waters include many baby sharks, made a rush for it, but after doing the fish equivalent of "sniffing," refused to touch it.

Presumably fish are optimists as they continued their round of "rush, sniff and reject" for several days, before they seemed to realise that the black masses being thrown from this particular ship were not fit for food.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES

LAWN BOWLS NOTES

Review Of League And Open Tournney Matches

By B. R. Swiller

The bowls matches decided last Saturday provided several surprises. The defeat of the Kowloon Football Club at the hands of Recreio in the Third Division was a very big upset, as the former, until last Saturday, had won all their matches, whereas the latter were, and for that matter still are, occupying a humble position in the Table.

The Yacht Club's victory over the Hong Kong Electric, also in the Third Division, came as another surprise. The former, up to last Saturday, had not won a single match, whereas their opponents were actually second in the Table.

Several big counts were chalked up on Saturday, the biggest being credited to J. J. Basto when his rink scored a possible against M. A. R. Souza's. Sevens were recorded by A. E. Alves against V. Walker, E. C. Fincher against J. G. Meyer, and B. Basto against W. K. Way.

The Kowloon Cricket Club playing away beat the Kowloon Bowling Green by one shot. E. C. Fincher is still unbeaten. On Saturday he beat J. G. Meyer by four shots. E. Kern had the better of R. Duncan by six shots but E. W. Lines' win of 11 shots for the K.B.C.C. over J. Hyde was unavailing.

INDIANS WIN

The Indians have at last broken their series of defeats by a win at home over the Civil Service C.C. They have M. R. Abbas chiefly to thank for their six shot victory as he was the only Indian skip to win his match. He beat Hollidge by eight shots. A. R. Dallah went down to S. Randle by two shots and A. K. Minu tied with G. Sherriff at 18-hill. Abbas had little to do, as his front men were all in good form. Though Hollidge himself played a good game, he was fighting an up-hill battle most of the time.

I was told that though Abbas was the most successful Indian skip, it was really A. K. Minu who won the match for the Indians. He only tied with Sherriff. It is true, but if he had not played as well as he did, the latter would easily have run away with a big win. On several heads he not only saved big counts against himself, but he came in for the first shot himself.

S. Randle was down to A. R. Dallah on the 17th head by 14-21, but a six and three singles on the last four heads enabled him to beat his opponent by two shots.

DOCKS OUT PLAYED

The Kowloon Dock turned out their three best rinks against Recreio at King's Park, but they were no match for the Portuguese who won quite comfortably by 13 shots. R. F. Luz beat J. C. Brown by 12 shots. F. X. M. Silva beat H. Cooper by 18-16 to maintain his 100 per cent skip's record. H. A. Alves lost to F. Cullen by one shot.

THE SECONDS

In the Second Division, the Hong Kong Football Club "A" team inflicted a beating on the Civil Service Cricket Club. Up on all rinks, the Footballers ran away with a victory by 36 shots. J. Rodger and his men played very well to beat W. R. Hillier's rink by 33 shots to 11. W. Gill's rinks also did well, as they beat W. Cullip's four by 26 shots to 15. A. Brookbank had the better of S. Eccleshall by three shots.

The Recreio second team also registered a big win in their match against Craigengower at home. They won by 34 shots. B. Basto's rink proved far superior to W. K. Way's. On the seventh head, Basto had scored 24 shots, which included a six scored on the sixth head, whereas Way had yet to open his account.

In his match against M. A. R. Souza, J. J. Basto chalked up a possible eight to score 31 shots to his opponent's 18. F. X. Soares was the only Portuguese skip to lose in his match. He was beaten by J. Cavanagh by two shots.

DRAKE'S RINK

At Talkoo, the Kowloon Bowling Green beat Talkoo Dock by 18 shots. This victory for the K.B.C.C. was only made possible through the fine effort of W. S. Drake and his men. So well did they play, that it was all T. F. Stainton's rink could do to get five shots from them in reply to their 37.

THIRD DIVISION

In the Third Division, Recreio, playing away, most unexpectedly beat the strong Kowloon Football Club team who until last Saturday had not lost a single match. The Portuguese, owing their victory to E. Yvanovich and C. Roza Pereira who beat T. Fergusson and J. Gibson by 24-11 and 25-17 respectively. W. Field was the only K.F.C. skip to win. He beat E. da Sousa by 20-14. Although the Portuguese victory was unexpected, it cannot be termed a fluke, as they had quite a comfortable lead of 13 shots at the end of the game.

OPEN TOURNEY

In a fourth round match in the Open Pairs Championship played on the Police green on Monday, A. Bakar and A. K. Minu of the Indian R.C. very surprisingly beat the strong Recreio combination of F. V. Ribeiro and H. A. Alves. The game was very evenly contested and it was not decided until the very last head.

Though Bakar was definitely off form and was easily the worst player of the four, Minu, his skip, played one of the best games I have seen him play and skillfully piloted him to victory. Ribeiro, as Alves' lead, played well on a very heavy and tricky green, and had Bakar beaten with monotonous regularity, but Minu had the measure of Alves right from the beginning.

The way that Minu was drawing for the shot when Alves was lying a couple or saving big counts, would have broken the heart of a less stout bowler, but Alves was his usual imperturbable self and refused to be put off by his opponent's good play.

With a three on the first head, Alves was leading Minu by nine shots to six on the eighth head. He was lying a couple on the next, but Minu took the jack into the ditch with his second wood to reverse the position in his favour with a count of four. Alves failing to save, Minu, having in the meanwhile added one more to the score, took five shots on that head to lead by eleven shots to nine.

LEVEL AT 14-ALL

Nothing daunted, Ribeiro and Alves played steadily, and slowly but surely crept on their opponents. On the 14th head they drew level at 14 shots all. Then onwards they took the lead again, and on the 19th head the score was 19-17 in their favour. It was unfortunate for Alves that with his last wood on the following head, when he was definitely lying the shot, he took the jack back to give Minu the shot in an attempt to remove the latter's nearest wood for a big count.

Minu who, as I said, played very well indeed throughout the game, reached great heights on the last head, and it was due to his brilliance on this head that the Indian pair won. When he went down to bowl, Ribeiro had put in two shots. Minu's second wood rested on Ribeiro's nearest wood for the shot, but Alves neatly took away Minu's shot. With a calmness that would do credit to a bowler of more experience, Minu, with his last wood, not only came for the first shot, but neatly shifted Alves' shot back to give him the count of two which he required to win the game. Alves failed to alter the position with his last wood and the Indian pair won by 20-19.

OMARS BEATEN

The elimination of the champions (the Omar brothers) from the Open Pairs Championship came as another surprise. They were beaten by J. S. Howell and R. G. Craig at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club. The champions revealed nothing of the form that earned for them the championship last year. Howell and Craig, on the other hand, seemed to like the heavy green, and early settled down to play steady bowls. They scored on 14 heads for their 25 shots which included a four and three threes. U. M. and A. M. scored only on seven heads for their ten shots.

RAIN UPSETS CRICKET

Drawn Matches Order Of Day

London, July 6.

Rain interfered with cricket all over the country yesterday, and drawn matches were the order of the day. Yorkshire were dealt a particularly hard blow by the elements. Needing only 67 runs, with seven wickets in hand, to inflict the first defeat on an Australian touring team since 1912, rain pelted down to cause an abandonment and to save the Australians.

Only one county cricket match was completed, Hampshire beating Essex by 227 runs.

Kent, Gloucestershire, Middlesex, Lancashire, Surrey, Warwickshire and Somerset had to be content with first innings points, while the University match at Lords between Oxford and Cambridge was left drawn in favour of the Cantabs.

The results were as follows: COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP Kent (201 and 70 for 2) beat Derbyshire (116) on first innings. Gloucester (183) beat Glamorgan (113 and 151 for 3) on first innings.

Middlesex (346 and 85 for 4 dec.) beat Worcester (201) on first innings. Hampshire (195 and 323) beat Essex (127 and 184) by 227 runs.

Lancashire (441 for 7 dec.) beat Notts (209 and 32 for 2) on first innings. Surrey (547) beat Sussex (250 and 22 for 0) on first innings.

Warwickshire (348) beat Leicestershire (175 and 263 for 3) on first innings. Somerset (354 and 181) beat Northants (248 and 221 for 7) on first innings.

OTHER MATCHES

The game between Yorkshire and the Australians was abandoned. Australians 222 and 123. Yorkshire 205 and 88 for 3.

Oxford and Cambridge drew. Oxford 317 and 126 for 8. Cambridge 425.—(Reuter).

RUN OUT BY RADIO

RUN OUT BY RADIO— that was what happened to a batsman recently.

Scene was a quiet playing field way down in South Petherton, Somerset, and the chief actors were E. S. Colvill and G. J. S. Dennis, opening batsmen for Weymouth Cricket Club.

Colvill, faced the bowling. There was the snick of the ball on bat and then— a loud "YES" heard all over the ground. Dennis backed up nobly, started to run, though it looked like a scrambled single at the best.

A fieldsman got the ball, a good return, and the wicket-keeper whisked off the balls.

"But I didn't call," said Colvill, as Dennis started to walk pavilionwards. AND HE HADN'T.

THE VOICE that had started the costly run didn't belong to anyone on the ground. It was the voice of Howard Marshall, commentator on the Test match in London, over 100 miles away. And the "Yes" came from a radio set in a motor-car parked at the side of the ground just as the hit was made.

"I've been playing club cricket for five years," Dennis said afterwards, "and this is the first time I've ever been run out." And when Mr. Marshall was told how he'd unwittingly taken a wicket, he said: "It's the most extraordinary thing that's ever happened in my broadcasting experience." And with that famous chuckle, added: "I must apologise most humbly to Mr. Dennis—for being the 'ghost' that ran him out."

Golf In The National Parks Of Canada

Among the many forms of recreation available in the National Parks of Canada, golf is one of the most popular, and soon thousands of enthusiasts will be enjoying the royal and ancient game in the exhilarating atmosphere and beautiful surroundings characteristic of the park areas.

Picturesque landscapes, unspoiled woodlands, and open meadows of velvet green provide an environment which, combined with modern golf architecture, place the links of the parks among the finest in the world.

Each year increasing numbers of tourists prolong their visits to these national playgrounds in order to enjoy to the fullest extent the advantages provided by the golf courses in Jasper, Banff, Waterton Lakes and Elk Island National Parks in Alberta, Prince Albert National Park in Saskatchewan, and Riding Mountain National Park in Manitoba.

FINE COURSE

Golfers visiting Jasper National Park will find, in a delightful mountain setting, one of the finest courses on the North American continent. The Jasper course is the scene of the annual Totem Pole tournament, an outstanding golf event in Western Canada. Excellent fairways, all of which are well trapped, stretch from every tee, and hazardous bunkers guard most of the beautifully contoured greens. The whole course of eighteen holes includes many artificial and natural hazards, offering opportunities for exciting shots with both wood and iron.

The recently remodelled eighteen-hole golf course in Banff National Park, situated along the beautiful Bow River at the foot of Mount Rundle, enjoys an international reputation. Greens and fairways are kept in excellent condition, and play on these sporty

SCENIC SETTING

Waterton Lakes National Park has an interesting eighteen-hole golf course, situated on the rolling slopes at the base of Mount Crandell. Golfers find full satisfaction in the scenic setting and excellent layout, and a small but attractive club-house is available for the convenience of players.

Visitors to Elk Island National Park, located about an hour's drive from Edmonton, are afforded an opportunity to enjoy the game on the recently completed nine-hole course with its attractive clubhouse overlooking Astoria Lake. The course is well situated on rolling terrain, southeast of the lake, in the vicinity of Sandy Beach, and is accessible from the main park highway.

OUTSTANDING ATTRACTION

At Prince Albert National Park a regulation eighteen-hole course, located on the rolling slopes east of Prospect Point, provides particularly sporty play. The topographical features of the region have made possible the construction of holes that will test the skill of both the professional and amateur golfer.

An outstanding attraction for visitors to Riding Mountain National Park is the eighteen-hole course, located at the eastern end of Clear Lake, about three miles by motor road from Wasagamung, the park townsite. It is ideally situated, and picturesque views of Clear Lake are available from many of the well-kept fairways and the club-house.

HENRY COTTON LEADS IN OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

Sandwich, July 5.

Henry Cotton, holder of the title, playing true to form, led the field at the end of the qualifying rounds in the British open golf championship held today, aggregating 143 for the two rounds.

One hundred and twenty players qualified for the competition proper which starts on Wednesday, returning aggregates of 157 or better. Among those who failed to qualify were Abe Mitchell, Robert Sweeney, T. A. Bourn and J. J. Taylor.

Leading scores were returned by: H. Cotton, 72 and 71, 143. Leonard Crawley, 73 and 71, 144. James Bussan 72 and 72, 144.

Over the Prince's Course, J. Fallon returned a card of 69 and 73, 142, and is the present leader. Lightning struck the umbrella held by J. E. Crapper, a Harrogate competitor, who was shaken temporarily and finished the round with an 82, and an aggregate of 184, thereby failing to qualify.

Among the leading qualifiers were: Bea, Locke, Brews, Crawley, Perry, J. J. Bussan, Eddie Whitcombe, all of whom scored 144.—(Reuter)

Personalities At The Macao Race Meeting

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Macao, July 5, 1938.
The weather in Macao last Sunday was anything but inviting to racing fans and this and other reasons might be held responsible for the mediocrity of attendance by Hong Kong racegoers at Arela Peta, but local residents were in larger number than at the previous meeting in June. At one time it was thought that the rain might sweep away the last few events, but fortunately it was only of a short duration and proved to be rather more of a refreshing shower.

Highlight of the Arela Peta meeting was the George Potts Memorial Cup event and the big cash sweep run off for it, and increasing interest was stimulated during the meeting by the fine riding performance of jockey Mr. A. W. Raymond.

Using the special box of the Macao Jockey Club was H. E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Artur Tamagnini de Sousa Barbosa, who was accompanied by son Marco Antonio and A.D.C. Capt. Macedo Pinto. Calling in at the box during the meeting to chat with His Excellency were Mr. F. J. Gellion, the Club chairman, and Captain Carlos Gorgulho, Police Commandant.

Mr. A. J. de Vasconcellos, Mr. H. Pinheiro and son Francisco were already in the grandstand when the first saddling bell sounded, while elsewhere Dr. Correia Nunes was chatting with odd friends here and there. Also among the early spectators were Mr. A. Valente, Post Office secretary, and Lt. Martins, of the Mozambique Troops.

EARLY GOERS

British residents were among the early goers, which included Waterworks, Mr. H. S. C. McComb, Customs Mr. W. H. P. Weston, and cadets Mr. Colin Luscombe, Mr. G. Searle and Mr. A. Houston. They were soon joined by Mr. C. H. Davis, also of the Chinese Maritime Customs at Lappa.

BRITISH TRIO

A HONG KONG GROUP

Colony racing enthusiasts watching the board at the Macao race meeting.

Among other spectators were Mr. J. A. Braga and Mr. Carlos Concelcao.

Walking up and down the lawn during the third interval were Col. A. Arez, Police Commissioner, and Mr. Jack Braga, who were holding forth to each other in conversation. Mr. and Mrs. C. Roque and daughter Miss Marie Roque were among the stand spectators. They were later joined by Mr. H. Nolasco, Dutch consul in Macao, while Mrs. Nolasco chatted with Mrs. F. J. Gellion out on the lawn.

FROM THE STANDS

Also watching from the stands were Capt. Libanio Gomes and daughter Miss Barbara Gomes, and Miss Helena Ribeiro.

Coming along in a group just before the fourth race began were Dr. Carlos Sampaio (Colonial Secretary), Dr. Mario S. Lells (Attorney-General), and Cmdr. S. Vieira (Harbour Master). Together with them were Mrs. Vieira and son Carlos Alberto.

Among the later arrivals were Brig-Gen. Themudo de Vera, genial manager of the Banco Nacional Ultramarino, accompanied by Mrs. de Vera and daughter Miss Marie Amelia de Vera.

A heavy shower drove all lawn strollers into the sheltered enclosures but the rain stopped soon enough to allow the use of the lawn before the final race was run off.

RAUB MINES MEETING

Reduced Profit Shown

The annual meeting of the Raub Australian Gold Mining Company Limited was held in Brisbane on June 29.

In moving the adoption of the Directors' Report, together with the audited Balance Sheet and Accounts for the year ended 31st March, 1938, the Chairman (Mr. De Burgh B. B. Perse) stated that the result of the year's operations had been a net profit of £43,581, as compared with £71,369 for the previous year.

Before arriving at the profit there had been charged against revenue £29,297 spent on development and prospecting, £2,409 exchange on plant payments in Australia, and £3,000 provided for depreciation of plant and other fixed assets. It would be noticed that the provision for depreciation was not so large as that made in the previous year, but in fixing the amount there had been taken into consideration the sum expended on general improvements, replacements and renovation already charged against revenue.

He said that the reason for the considerable reduction in net profit lay of course in the drop in grade of the ore mined from the Bukit Koman Section, which previously supplied the major portion of the high grade ore. Shareholders were circumscribed in September 1937, following rumours that the mine was completely worked out, and the position was then explained. The General Manager in his monthly reports, which have been circulated throughout the year, had regularly reported the trend of events in the various sections of the mine, and in his Annual Report had given further information and had stated the proved ore reserves.

DEVELOPMENT WORK

Development work had proved distinctly disappointing, and in spite of a large expenditure, ore reserves at the close of the period were considerably smaller than those at the commencement. It was obvious that a vigorous policy of development must be maintained during the coming period. The Mill had treated 3,000 tons more ore than in the previous year, but the recovery (fine gold) from each ton of ore had dropped from 7.88 dwts. to 6.19 dwts., this being the lowest average for a very long time.

The Re-treatment Plant, after certain delays occasioned by late deliveries of plant, was ready for operation towards the end of January last, and had assisted results materially since then. It was engaged in treating approximately equal proportions of current tailings from the battery, and old tailings which had accumulated over a lengthy period. The General Manager had advised that its operation at the present time was considered quite satisfactory, and that recoveries from this source would improve as time went on. The process was profitable and showed a good return on the capital invested.

TIN AREA

Since the Accounts for the last financial year were finalised and the Report of the Directors was printed, a preliminary report on the Tin Area had been received from an independent expert who had recently examined the area. His conclusions were that tin undoubtedly existed on the area, but that deposits were of such small dimensions and the indications of further discoveries were so remote, owing to the nature of the country, that the area did not appear to be worth the expenditure that would be essential to obviate injury to the turbines at the power station from silt from the workings. A final report was still awaited.

Mr. Coldham had now gone to England on six months' leave which was due to him last year in accordance with his service agreement, but which he deferred in the interests of the Company in order to ensure the prompt completion of the new Re-treatment Plant. He would be back towards the end of November to reassume the management.

Messrs. De Burgh B. B. Perse, R. C. Philip, M. D. Davies, and C. S. Delprat were reappointed directors for the ensuing year, and Mr. F. G. Pumphrey, F.C.A. (Aust.), was re-elected auditor.

PRESENTATION

A presentation will be made to Mr. A. E. Silkestone at the Kowloon Cricket Club at 7.15 p.m.

Other supplementary expenditure requested by the Financial Secretary includes $281,869 for Public Works Recurrent, $64,829 for the Kowloon-Canton Railway, $31,993 for the Fire Brigade and sums varying from $1,800 to $9,218 for the Attorney General, Land Office, the Prison Department, Magistracy and Treasury.
